

2010 Annual Election for the Board of Directors of the University Insurance Association (UIA)

Biographies of Nominees

Scott Beyer, UW Oshkosh – Professor of Insurance & Associate Professor of Finance. He has taught graduate and undergraduate courses in financial management, investments, international finance, and risk management. He consults in risk management, investments, and is a consultant with the CFA Institute and is a CFA Charterholder. Currently serves as the director of the UW Oshkosh Insurance Program. PhD in Finance from the University of Missouri, MBA and MA in Economics from Western IL U, and a BS from the UW in Chemical Engineering.

Sean Carey, UW Stevens Point - Assistant Professor of Accounting. He has been a CPA for approximately 20 years in advanced tax research and planning. Experience includes working in the Merger & Acquisition area of a Big 4 public accounting firm, a CFO position over a conglomerate of entities and working with an international NYSE company that providing him with experience in SEC reporting. BBA in Accounting, MS in Management Science in Taxation from UW Milwaukee and MA in Clinical Psychology from UNLV.

Matthew Raunio, UW Colleges - Sheboygan - Assistant Professor of Business and Economics. He is a CPA and CFA Charterholder. Prior work experience includes positions where his responsibilities included investments, insurance and self-insurance and claims administration. MBA UW Oshkosh and BS in Business Administration from Michigan Technological University.

Steven C. Tippins, UW La Crosse - Associate Professor in the Finance Department, CEBS, CLU, ARM. Steven has been teaching insurance courses for over 20 years including Employee Benefits at the undergraduate and master's level. He has served on the Board of the Illinois FAIR Plan, the Viroqua Food Cooperative, and the NeighborWorks Insurance Alliance and he has served as a consultant for many organizations including the Association of Small Business Development Centers, Scattergood Friends School, Fiat, and several start-up firms. PhD Florida State University.

Carey Woodward, UW Colleges – Fond du Lac - Assistant Professor of Physics/Astronomy. He has worked at various campuses of the UW system since 1995. He also worked for a Madison accounting firm and is currently the Treasurer/CFO of St. Paul's Cathedral in Fond du Lac. BS in Physics from Yale University and PhD in Physics from UW Madison.