University of Wisconsin TSA Participant Obligations

The following applies to all participants in the University of Wisconsin Tax-Sheltered Annuity (TSA) Program:

1. Federal Contribution Limits: TSA contributions are subject to annual limits determined under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) sec. 402(g) and 415 (c). In 2012, your limit is $17,000 (or 100% of UW compensation, if less). If you are age 50 or older in 2012, you may contribute an additional $5,500. The limits may be indexed annually in $500 increments based on the Consumer Price Index. The IRS publishes the limits in the last quarter of the year for the following year.
If you have 15 years of UW employment, you may be eligible to contribute a further $3,000: ask your staff benefits office about this option; not everyone with 15 years of service is eligible. The website www.uwsa.edu/hr/benefits/retsav/limits.htm also lists annual limits. Your TSA limit is reduced dollar for dollar by any voluntary contribution you make to another 403(b), 401(k), Federal Thrift Savings, salary reduction SEP, or SIMPLE plan.
Contributions to a 457 (Deferred Compensation) plan or to a traditional or Roth IRA do NOT affect your TSA limit.
Over-contributions may result in tax penalties. You are solely responsible for the tax consequences of authorizing any salary reduction that exceeds the amounts allowed by law. It is your responsibility to monitor your annual salary reductions to ensure that they are in compliance with the IRC provisions and bring any over-contributions or changes in employment status to the attention of your UW staff benefits office.
2. Investment Responsibility: You are responsible for your TSA investment decisions. This responsibility includes informing yourself of the nature and risk of the investments, monitoring your investments, and determining when a change in investments is appropriate. The University and the Board of Regents are in no way liable for gains or losses you may incur in your TSA account(s).
3. Authorized Investment Companies (Vendors): As long as the University of Wisconsin (UW) employs you, you may make contributions only to investment companies and products authorized under the TSA Program. You may change your future contributions to a different authorized option, or transfer all or a portion of your account balance to any other authorized investment option at any time, subject to contractual surrender charges or redemption fees. As long as the UW employs you, you may not transfer your TSA account balances to vendors or investment options not authorized by the TSA Program.
4. Withdrawals and Loans: Generally, you cannot withdraw or roll over your TSA account balances before you attain age 59 ½, terminate employment, die, or become disabled. Withdrawals may also be available as ordered by a court under a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO). Loans, in amounts limited by federal law, are available from authorized UW TSA providers, except Dreyfus and Lincoln National. The TSA investment company is responsible for approving loans according to IRS and UW TSA Plan provisions. Not more than two loans may be outstanding at any time. Hardship withdrawals are not available as of 1/01/2009. The investment company is responsible for determining your eligibility for other withdrawals. Tax penalties may apply to distributions before age 59 ½. You are entirely responsible for all loans and withdrawals and any resulting tax liabilities.
5. Salary Reduction Agreement (SRA) Termination: To stop your contributions, you must file a new copy of the SRA with your staff benefits office. If you terminate employment, your SRA terminates automatically after your last check is paid. If you later return to work, you must file a new SRA to resume contributing. The UW reserves the right to suspend or terminate a participant's SRA if it believes that the participant has overcontributed or is in violation of any applicable federal requirement or any term of this agreement.
6. Required Distributions: After you retire, you must take minimum distributions from your TSA account, generally beginning no later than age 70 ½. You do not need to take Required Minimum Distributions from your UW TSA accounts as long as you are still working for the UW, even though you may be over age 70 ½.
7. Effective Date: Unless you specify a later effective date, this agreement takes effect on the first payday following the employer's receipt of this form. Forms received less than 10 business days before payday may not take effect until the following pay period.
8. Corrections: It is your responsibility to verify that this SRA has been accurately processed by comparing it to your earnings statement. Contact your benefits office immediately if you find any discrepancy. In volatile markets, the value of your contribution may decline over time. The University will correct, at our cost, errors reported to us within two months. The participant must bear the cost due to market decline, if any, to correct any portion of errors that are more than two months old.
