

*Mentoring New Faculty:
Helping Facilitate Growth and Development of New Teachers*

Tuesday, October 18, 2005
12:00 – 1:30 PM
Old Library 1132

Live Web Seminar!

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Ike Shibley

Penn State-Berks

Bring your lunch and stay for dessert and coffee!

*Registration requested by October 14, 2005.
More program details on back...*

Who should attend?

- ◆ Faculty
- ◆ Department Chairs
- ◆ Academic Deans
- ◆ Academic Administrators
- ◆ Academic Affairs Personnel
- ◆ Faculty Development Personnel
- ◆ Distance Education Administrators/Staff
- ◆ Continuing/Extension Education Personnel

What will you learn?

- ◆ Beneficial aspects of effective mentoring to the mentee, the mentor, and the institution
- ◆ Specific activities that can help promote development of new teachers
- ◆ Resources for new faculty in terms of books and articles
- ◆ The positive outcomes of reciprocal classroom visits between mentor/mentee
- ◆ “The Power of Honest Conversation” between mentor/mentee
- ◆ The multiple demands on a teacher’s time at different institutions including: research, service to the institution, and community service
- ◆ Ways that the institution can create a more welcoming culture of mentoring to registrar email: net@uwec.edu or call:715-836-3323

Please RSVP by October 14, 2005.

