1. Person pays for medical costs until they reach their deductible.

2. They, person pays coinsurance and copay amounts while their insurance covers the remainder of medical care costs.

3. Insurance covers everything after the person reaches their out-of-pocket limit (OOPL).