What does this admission offer mean?

- You have been admitted to the UW universities listed above. No admission application is required!
- Your admission is conditional upon successful completion of Direct Admit Wisconsin requirements (courses and GPA) and submission of your official final high school transcript.
- Please be aware that your admission is to the UW university, not to a specific major or program of study.

Choosing to attend a Universities of Wisconsin university means stepping into a community ready to support you from day one. You'll find a place that fits you, whether you're looking for a big university experience, a close-knit campus, or something in between.

A UW degree opens doors to great careers, strong professional networks, and experiences that help you grow academically and personally. When you choose a UW university, you're choosing a place that is invested in you and your future.

What are your next steps?

- Watch our "Next Steps" video (wisconsin.edu/direct-admit).
- Complete the Direct Admit Form (apply.wisconsin.edu/direct-admit) to connect with the UWs you have been admitted to and are interested attending. The Direct Admit Form does not commit you to attending a UW, it just lets them know you are interested in learning more.
- After you submit the Direct Admit Form, the UWs will communicate additional information regarding enrollment, scholarships, visit opportunities, etc. The earlier you submit the form, the sooner the UWs can connect with you regarding next steps in the process.

Didn't receive a Direct Admit offer from your preferred UW?

No problem! Beginning August 1, you can apply to any UW to which you did not receive a Direct Admit offer by completing the Universities of Wisconsin Admission Application at apply.wisconsin.edu.

NOTE: UW-Eau Claire, UW-La Crosse and UW-Madison do not participate in Direct Admit Wisconsin and if interested in those universities you can apply using the Universities of Wisconsin Admission Application as well.

On behalf of the Universities of Wisconsin, congratulations again on your admission! We hope to see you on a campus visit soon and in the freshman class of 2027!

Submit your Direct Admit Form as soon as possible! Your Direct Admit Wisconsin offers expire May 1, 2027. If you do not submit your form by this date, you will need to apply using the Universities of Wisconsin Admission Application.
