Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) – 70 for 70

Q: Is a student who has received their full vaccination series eligible?
A: Yes, a student who has received either (a) two doses of Moderna or Pfizer or (b) one dose of Johnson and Johnson will be eligible. International students can receive any FDA approved vaccine.

Q: Are students who are already vaccinated eligible?
A: Yes, this campaign is for all vaccinated students.

Q: Does a student need to do anything other than get vaccinated to be eligible?
A: Yes, once a student gets vaccinated, they must inform their university. You can go to www.wisconsin.edu/2021/07/25/70for70/ for more information.

Q: Are graduate students eligible?
A: Yes, if they are present on campus.

Q: Are there any students who are ineligible for the “70 for 70” campaign?
A: Yes, fully online students are ineligible.

Q: Could a student get vaccinated before October 15, then not tell their university until after?
A: No, you must get vaccinated, and inform your university, by October 15, 2021 to be eligible for the drawing.

Q: If a student graduates this Fall, would they still be eligible?
A: Yes, they would receive an offset.

Q: Why is UW-Madison not included in this campaign?
A: Much like testing, Madison has different peers and resources to apply to its vaccination campaign. It is expected that they will have rate around 80%.