STUDENT DATA AREA

Overview

The Student Data Area identifies and describes elements of data which pertain to students within the University of Wisconsin System. In order to more easily conceptualize these data, they have been somewhat artificially grouped into four primary types, i.e., Types I, II, III and IV. Page II.C.2 illustrates these groupings with dotted lines referring to elements which are not always required for logical record completion (solid lines referring to elements which are always required), and recurring blocks depicting elements for which multiple occurrence is possible. Neither the diagram nor the logical listing of data elements is to be construed to imply a physical record layout; rather, a logical structure is being described.

Each complete record identifies and describes a unique student. Uniqueness is established by a single combination of two data elements: one within the Type III descriptors, i.e., Unit (includes Division for UW Receiving Institutions) and one within the Type I descriptors, i.e., Student Social Security Number. These two elements are referred to as the entity key. Whenever either of these descriptors changes, another unique student is identified.

The data elements are grouped into four types on the basis of their relationship to an educational institution. Not all elements in each type are required for the completion of each student's term-record. Type I (referred to as Personal) descriptors are educationally (or institutionally) independent. Further, it seems reasonable to assume that exactly one set of these (Type I) elements is required for the completion of each student's term-record. The Type II (Pre-University) descriptors are divided into two forms (Form A and Form B) and, in both cases, contain information about the educational institution previously attended by the student. Neither Form A (pertinent to new undergraduates) nor Form B (pertinent to other students as appropriate) would always be relevant to each student's term-record. The Type III (University) descriptors are also divided into two forms (Form A and Form B), both of which contain student information which is directly related to his (her) current university experience; Form A containing information of relevance at the beginning of the term, and Form B containing information of relevance at the end of the term. Finally, the Type IV (Post-University) descriptors name certain variables which have meaning when a student completes a university experience, by obtaining a degree or certificate.

DATA ELEMENT DESCRIPTION

NUMBER: 2080
NAME: ADDRESS-PERMANENT (ADDRESS AT TIME OF APPLICATION)
DEFINITION: An eight character code designating a student's address at the time he/she applies for admission. For students from Wisconsin, this field would be the Wisconsin county of origin code plus the five digit zip code. For students from the U.S. (or U.S. territory) but not from Wisconsin, this field would be the two digit state code plus the five digit zip code. For students not from the U.S. the field should be the three digit country code.

CODING REQUIREMENTS

LENGTH: 8 positions

DECIMAL POSITION: N/A

SPECIFICATIONS: Leftmost three positions coded as follows: 2-character numeric county if Wisconsin resident; 2-character alpha abbreviation if state (or U.S. territory) other than Wisconsin; 3-character numeric if country other than U.S. Use only one of the above – if less than three positions, right justify with blanks (Ƅs) to the left. Rightmost five positions coded with zip code, except when a foreign country code is used, in which case blank (Ƅ) fill.

EXAMPLE: Student's permanent address is in zip area 54701 in Eau Claire County (Wisconsin); this element is 'Ƅ1854701'.

2080-11 The first three positions of the element must contain a valid code per the Address Code table, CDR Manual Vol. II. If the first three positions of the element indicate a U.S. address, the remaining five positions of Address-Permanent (Address at Time of Application) (DE 2080) must be numeric or blank. If the first three positions of the element are a foreign country code, per Address Code table, then the last five positions of Address-Permanent (Address at Time of Application) (DE 2080) used to specify zip code must be blank (Ƅ). The third position of this field can not be blank. +

2080-21 If the first three positions of the element indicate a Wisconsin county and the remaining five are numeric, the first two positions of the zip code should indicate a Wisconsin zip code. Or, if the first three positions of the element indicate a U.S. address (other than WI) and the remaining five are numeric, the first two positions of the zip code should not indicate a Wisconsin zip code. +

NOTES: Wisconsin county and U.S. state and territory codes are two characters long and must be right justified, therefore, the left most position of Address-Permanent (Address at Time of Application)(DE 2080) must be blank (Ƅ) for U.S. address codes. Non U.S. address codes are three characters long and must start in the left most position. The third position of this field cannot be blank. -

NUMBER:	2105
NAME:	HIGH SCHOOL CLASS RANK PERCENTILE
DEFINITION:	The high school rank percentile. This data element is collected/calculated only for new freshmen.

CODING REQUIREMENTS

LENGTH: 2 positions

DECIMAL POSITION: N/A

SPECIFICATIONS: This element is used if the high school from which a new freshman graduated provides the high school rank percentile instead of the High School Class Size (DE 2090) and High School Class Rank (DE 2100) data. 2175-71   a) The Home Institution Division (DE 2175) must be the same   + for all Student Records in a Student Record Set.

b) Student Classification (DE 2210), Resident Status (DE 2220)   + and Entrance Status (DE 2240) along with all Type I Personal data should be the same across all Student Records in a Student Record Set.

c) If there are multiple Student Records in a Student Record   + Set, then the Degree(s) Earned this Term (DE 2420) and Major(s) Associated with Degree Earned this Term (DE 2430) should only be reported once on one student record within the student record set and should align with the with the enrollment record.

Example: A student completes courses at both Barron
County and at Eau Claire main campus. They receive an AA degree at Barron County and a Bachelor's degree at Eau Claire main campus. Since these are different degree types, they can be recorded in the appropriate Student Record.

Example: A student completes courses at both Barron
County and at Eau Claire main campus. They receive a Bachelors degree at Eau Claire main campus. The degree should be recorded at Eau Claire main campus.

Example: A student completes courses at both Barron County and at Eau Claire main campus. They receive multiple Bachelors degrees at Eau Claire main campus. The degree should be recorded at Eau Claire main campus.
(Follow the requirements for reporting Majors and Degrees in DE 2430 and DE 2420)

NOTES: Definition of "Student Record Set" (Unit/Division/CSID). Students who take   + courses at multiple locations within a single unit (receiving institutions only) will have multiple records, one for each branch (division) where they enrolled in a course. These multiple records make up a "Student Record Set". For example, if student (CSID '12345') enrolls in a course at Whitewater Main (Unit 'N', Division 'Null') and a course at Rock County (Unit 'N', Division '28'), there would be two records listed at Unit 'N' for that one student.

CODING REQUIREMENTS

DECIMAL POSITION: N/A

SPECIFICATIONS: For campus degree credit students, including students in UW-Extension credit/Interinstitutional Agreement courses:

CODE	DEFINITION
N	New, Undergraduate-student: has had no creditable (i.e., acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned during Summer Session or while enrolled in high school). Graduate-student: New if not coded as re-entry or continuing.* Special student: New if not coded as re-entry or continuing.*
R	Re-entry, applies to undergraduate, graduate and specials. Student was enrolled at your institution, left for one or more terms (other than Summer Session), and returned. In the case of an undergraduate--the student did not earn transferable credits from another institution (other than Summer Session), and has reenrolled at your institution.
C	Continuing, applies to undergraduate, graduate and specials. Student is continuing from previous term at same program level. (Summer Session absence not relevant.) Students changing between UW Receiving Institutions and their affiliated campuses (DE 2170) are considered continuing.
T	Transfer, does not apply to graduate or special students. Student is transferring credits from another institution of higher education (other than credits earned during Summer Session or while enrolled in high school) and has not previously enrolled at your institution. This does not apply to students transferring between UW Receiving Institutions and their affiliated campuses (DE 2170).
S	Combination Re-entry/transfer; does not apply to graduate or special students. An undergraduate who previously enrolled at your institution, left for one or more terms (other than Summer Session), earned transferable credits from another institution of higher education, and has reenrolled at your institution.

Undergraduates seeking an additional baccalaureate degree, major, minor, and/or certification should be coded as Re-entry if they previously enrolled at your institution and have no transferable credits (other than credits earned during Summer Session or while enrolled in high school).

SPECIFICATIONS (cont.):   For Extended Degree students:

CODE	DEFINITION
N	New. Student has no creditable (i.e., acceptable for transfer) course work in higher education (other than credits earned during Summer Session or while enrolled in high school). The student is considered a new student if he/she is new to higher education, not just new to the Extended Degree Program (EDP). Prior Learning Credits do not qualify as acceptable for transfer course work and therefore do not alter a student's entrance status, i.e., a student can have Prior Learning Credits and can still be considered a new student.
R	Re-entry. Student was not on the previous term's CDR (not including Summer Session) but was previously enrolled at your institution, either as part of the regular on-campus degree credit program or the EDP. However, if the student has been on another campus, (other than Summer Session) during the time away from your institution and is transferring credits, the student should be reported as a Combination Re-entry/transfer student (Entrance Status 'S').
C	Continuing. Student is continuing course work from the previous term at your institution and was reported on the previous term's CDR, either as part of the regular on-campus degree credit program or the EDP. (Summer Session absence not relevant.) Students changing between UW Receiving Institutions and their affiliated campuses (DE 2170) are considered continuing. X
T	Transfer. Student is transferring credits from another institution of higher education (other than credits earned during Summer Session or while enrolled in high school) and has not previously enrolled at your institution. Prior Learning Credits and EDP credits do not qualify as transferable credits within the same campus. This does not apply to students transferring between UW Receiving Institutions and their affiliated campuses (DE 2170). X
S	Combination Re-entry/transfer. A student in EDP who previously enrolled at your institution, left for one or more terms (other than Summer Session), earned transferable credits from another institution of higher education, and has reenrolled at your institution. This does not apply to students transferring between UW Receiving Institutions and their affiliated campuses (DE 2170). X

EXAMPLE:

DEFAULTS: If Student Classification (DE 2210) contains an 'E', 'F', 'G', ~~'I'~~, 'J', 'K', 'L', X 'M', 'N', 'O', 'P', 'S', 'T', 'V', or 'Y' and Entrance Status, Current (DE 2240) contains a 'T', then this element is defaulted to 'N'. If Student Classification (DE 2210) contains an 'E', 'F', 'G', ~~'I'~~, 'J', 'K', 'L', 'M', 'N', 'O' 'P', 'S', X 'T', 'V', or 'Y' and Entrance Status, Current (DE 2240) contains an 'S', then this element is defaulted to 'R'.

EDITS:

DATA ELEMENT DESCRIPTION

NUMBER: 2360
NAME: STUDENT BUDGET, INDIVIDUAL
DEFINITION: The most current summation of estimated living and educational expenses for the student. It is important that the budget be compatible with the contribution/expectation for the student so that the difference between the budget minus the contribution/expectation equals the financial need for the student. Also, the need and the derivation values must be compatible with the aid disbursements. Budgets reported for the traditional academic year must be prorated for students with aid less than 9 months to reflect the portion of the academic year during which the student is enrolled.

Separate budgets must be reported for the summer term and the balance of the academic (fall and spring) year. When 12 month budgets are used to determine need, it must be prorated between summer and traditional terms. Minnesota and Michigan students' budgets should reflect Minnesota and Michigan reciprocity, example: non-resident budgets minus reciprocity.

CODING REQUIREMENTS

LENGTH: 5 positions

DECIMAL POSITION: ƀƀƀƀƀ

SPECIFICATIONS: The dollar amount is to be provided for each student included in the Financial Aid Data Submission who received an aid type that required a federal financial aid Needs Analysis to be completed. When the student received only aid that did not require a federal needs analysis to be completed and no student budget is available to be reported, then this element should be coded as all blanks (ƀs).

EXAMPLE: Student is enrolled for the 1st and 2nd semesters and has a budget of $800.00 per semester; this element is '01600'.

DEFAULTS:

EDITS:
2360-11 A numeric value greater than or equal to zero must be present for students who received an aid type that required a federal Needs Analysis to be completed (see Financial Aid Type (DE 2400)).

2360-12 The value should not exceed $50,000 for resident undergraduates x and $100,000 for nonresident undergraduates and for graduate and professional students, except in cases where this element is coded as all blanks (ƀs).

NAME: FINANCIAL DEPENDENCY STATUS
DEFINITION: A code indicating whether the student is financially dependent or independent of their parents or guardian.

CODING REQUIREMENTS

LENGTH: 1 position

DECIMAL POSITION: N/A

SPECIFICATIONS:

CODE	DEFINITION
I	INDEPENDENT: The student is considered "independent" or "self-supporting" as specified in current federal regulations.
D	DEPENDENT: The student does not qualify as an independent for financial aid purposes as specified in current federal regulations.

A student's dependency status code is to be entered for each student included in the Financial Aid Data Submission who received an aid type that required a federal financial aid Needs Analysis to be completed (see Financial Aid Type (DE 2400)). When the student received only aid that did not require a federal financial aid Needs Analysis to be completed and no dependency status is available to be reported then this data element should be blank (b̷). Separate dependency status codes can be reported for the summer term and the balance of the academic year (fall and spring terms).   + EXAMPLE: Student is independent; this element is 'I'.

DEFAULTS:

EDITS: 2370-11   A code of 'I', 'D', or a blank (b̷) must be present.
2370-21   A code of 'I' or 'D' must be present for students who received an aid type that required a federal financial aid Needs Analysis to be completed (see Financial Aid Type (DE 2400)).   -

DATA ELEMENT DESCRIPTION

NUMBER: 2380
NAME: STUDENT AID INDEX (SAI)
DEFINITION: A formula-based eligibility index number ranging from -01500 to 999999. SAI calculates the total financial resources of the student and parents (or spouse) then deducts the minimum amount needed for the family's normal annual living expenses. The remaining amount, may in part, be allocated for college expenses.

Where an SAI falls within the SAI range (-01500 to 999999) helps determine the level of financial support needed. For example, a lower SAI means the higher your financial need and your higher likelihood of qualifying for need-based aid like a Pell Grant.

When packaging need-based aid for students with negative SAIs, schools must convert any negative SAIs to zero (0) for awarding purposes. A negative SAI will not increase the amount of need-based aid a student can receive. A negative SAI also does not increase the amount of non-need-based aid that a student may receive because the SAI is not a factor in determining eligibility for aid that is not based on financial need.

For attendance periods other than nine months, the calculated 9-month SAI must be used. There are no alternate SAIs comparable to the alternate EFCs used prior to the 2024-25 award year for periods other than nine months. See the Federal Student Aid Handbook for more information.

CODING REQUIREMENTS

EXAMPLE: Student Aid Index is $3,456.00; this element is '003456'.

Student Aid Index is -$1,500.00; this element is '-01500'.

NAME:	FAMILY CONTRIBUTION/STUDENT EXPECTATION
DEFINITION:	The cumulative amount of money that: 1) a dependent student's family is expected to contribute toward the student's individual budget, or 2) an independent student is expected to contribute toward his/her individual budget.

The Family Contribution/Student Expectation is based upon current federal guidelines. Family Contributions should not be reduced by the amount of supplemental loans (e.g., SLS or PLUS) which have been used to replace family contributions.

Contributions/expectations are to be reported separately for the summer session and the balance of the academic year (i.e., the combination of fall and spring terms). When added together, the total should equal the contribution/expectation for the reporting period. The contribution/expectation period must cover the same time period for which aid is being reported.
