FACULTY COLLEGE 2023
May 30–June 2, The Osthoff Resort at Elkhart Lake

Schedule (subject to change)

Tuesday, May 30, 2023

Noon to 3 p.m.  2023-24 Wisconsin Teaching Fellows & Scholars
First meeting & luncheon – for WTFS only

4  The Osthoff Resort check-in & Faculty College registration

6 to 8  Opening Dinner – sit with your university team
> Trumpet solo – Russ Johnson (UW-Parkside)
> Welcome & introductions – Fay Akindes (OPID)
> University team icebreakers – Valerie Barske (UW-Stevens Point) and Heather Pelzel (UW-Whitewater)

Post-dinner  Socialize in the Elk Room (optional)

Wednesday, May 31, 2023

8 to 8:45 am  Continental Breakfast

Mindfulness Exercise

9  Welcome and Introduction of Plenary Speaker
VP Johannes Britz (UWSA)

9:15  Plenary Session I – Dr. Lisa Brock
Social Justice Teaching & Learning: Across Disciplines, Fields, and Canons (first five of 11 strategies)

10:15  Break

10:25  Reflection – Facilitated by Valerie Barske & Heather Pelzel
Small-group discussion – interdisciplinary groups from different universities (5 participants)

11:15  Reconvene for large-group discussion
Comments by Dr. Lisa Brock
Responses from UW System

Dr. Tracy Davidson, Associate VP, Office of Academic Affairs

Noon to 12:45 p.m.  Lunch

12:45  Group Photo on the lawn below the Elk Room

1 to 3:30  Personal Retreat
Equity-minded teaching & learning values self-care.
We all need rest to work against burnout, to embrace hope, to process complex ideas. Swim, walk, nap, journal, rest on the beach, visit Elkhart Village for ice cream, etc.

3:30 to 5:30  University Team Work
Context Matters

6 to 7  Dinner

7:15 to 8:15  Participant-led discussion – Villa Gottfried Parlour (optional)

8:30 to 10:30 p.m.  Firepit near the lake

Thursday, June 1, 2023

8:00 to 8:45 am  Continental Breakfast

9  Mindfulness exercise

9:15  Plenary Session II – Dr. Lisa Brock
Social Justice Teaching & Learning: Across Disciplines,
Fields, and Canons – last six of 11 strategies

10:15  Break

10:25  Reflection – Facilitated by Valerie Barske & Heather Pelzel
Small-group discussion (5 participants).
Identify dominant- and counter-narratives, then think about how you would change your discipline using strategies 6-11 for reference.

11:30  Reconvene for large-group discussion with Doc Brock.
Short explanation of what happens in the afternoon (hope).
noon  Lunch
1 to 3:30  Personal Retreat
3:30 to 5:30  University Team Work
Now what? Move to action steps
6 to 7  Dinner
7:15 to 8:15  Participant-led discussion – Villa Gottfried Parlour (optional)
8:30 to 10:30 p.m.  Firepit near the lake

Friday, June 2, 2023

8 to 8:45 a.m.  Continental Breakfast
9 to 11:30  Hope is a discipline.
Ten-minute presentations by university teams. How will you carry forward and empower your faculty/instructors with hope at your institution?
11:30  Closing Comments – Dr. Lisa Brock
11:45 a.m.  Trumpet solo by Russ Johnson
Farewell & Box Lunches

Note: Please email a slide for your ten-minute presentation to opid@uwsa.edu by 8 a.m. The slide will be projected as you/your team speaks. Nothing wordy. Suggestion: Simple, strong images with your university name that communicate the theme of your talk.

Faculty College Planning Team: Valerie Barske (UW-Stevens Point), Jordan Landry (UW-Oshkosh), Heather Pelzel (UW-Whitewater), Sylvia Tiala (UW-Stout), Fay Akindes (OPID).

With support from Erin McGroarty (UWSA/OPID), Laura Richards (UW-Madison's Conference Management Services), and OPID's Advisory Council.