

Infusion Guidelines

- Choose topics that have connectivity to real world issues
- Challenge conventional thinking where power is hidden
- Acknowledge one's own positionality
- Foster a questioning of power
- Complicate an analysis of power
- Encourage vision against apathy! Hope is a discipline (Mariame Kaba)
- Embrace change and transformation
- Be aware of silences and the silencing of oppressed voices, histories, and stories!

- ⌘ Give assignments that address structural inequality
- ⌘ Address privilege in class and in content
- ⌘ Challenge with counter type. Use role-play, fiction, fables, speculative/science fiction
- ⌘ When talking about oppressed groups, center their view
- ⌘ Be aware of power assumptions (stereotypes)
- ⌘ Address immediately racist/classist/ homophobic (etc.) comments in class

©Dr. Lisa Brock

Dr.Brockconsultant@gmail.com