

PERMISSION AND RELEASE AGREEMENT

Thank you for enrolling in the School of _____ (i.e. School of Human Ecology 501-004/009 "Campus Community Connections") course and completing your course assignments. One of the assignments in this class is to produce a digital media assignment that is related to the course content. When you are done, you keep the copyright and may do whatever you please with the digital media assignment. However, your instructor may also want to use your assignment as an example to show other classes, or to show at a conference. To enable him/her to do this, you must give the following permission.

As the Author, I retain copyright in the materials and grant (Name of Instructor) and DoIT-Academic Technology permission to:

Use, copy, distribute and include in publications, course materials, educational presentations and other similar works solely for educational purposes, all written, photographic, digital story, video, and other materials created during this course; and deposit and maintain these materials in the University archives for use by researchers and the public for scholarly or educational purposes. Use can be in any and all media now or hereafter known.

I warrant that I am the sole author of the materials subject to this agreement and that I am authorized to sign this agreement. I also warrant I have obtained the necessary permissions from others involved in the production. I further release the university from liability for any claims, actions or suits related to the creation of use of my materials.

I understand that I will receive no remuneration or consideration for use of the materials.

Use of my materials will include attribution in the following format:

Title of Work: _____

Author(s): _____

Creative Commons License (if applicable): _____

If you do not wish to grant permission, please check the box below:

I do NOT grant my instructor or DoIT-Academic-Technology permission to use my work for any of the purposes outlined above.
