

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION IN THE
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN SYSTEM AND THE UW SYSTEM'S ROLE IN DEVELOPING GLOBAL LEADERS

PRESENTATION TO THE UW SYSTEM
BOARD OF REGENTS
JULY 9, 2015

OVERVIEW AND INTRODUCTIONS

*Stephen H. Kolison, Jr. , Ph.D.
Associate Vice President for Academic, Faculty, and Global Programs*

Goals of the Presentation

- Present information on international education in the UW System;
- Discuss the importance of international education for our students;
- Assess the contributions of international students to UW institutions and the state; and
- Highlight examples of international programs and partnerships.

Panel

Dr. Fernando Delgado, Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, UW-River Falls

Dr. Patrice Petro, Vice Provost for International Education, UW-Milwaukee

Dr. Cynthia Williams, Director of External Relations, Division of International Studies, UW-Madison

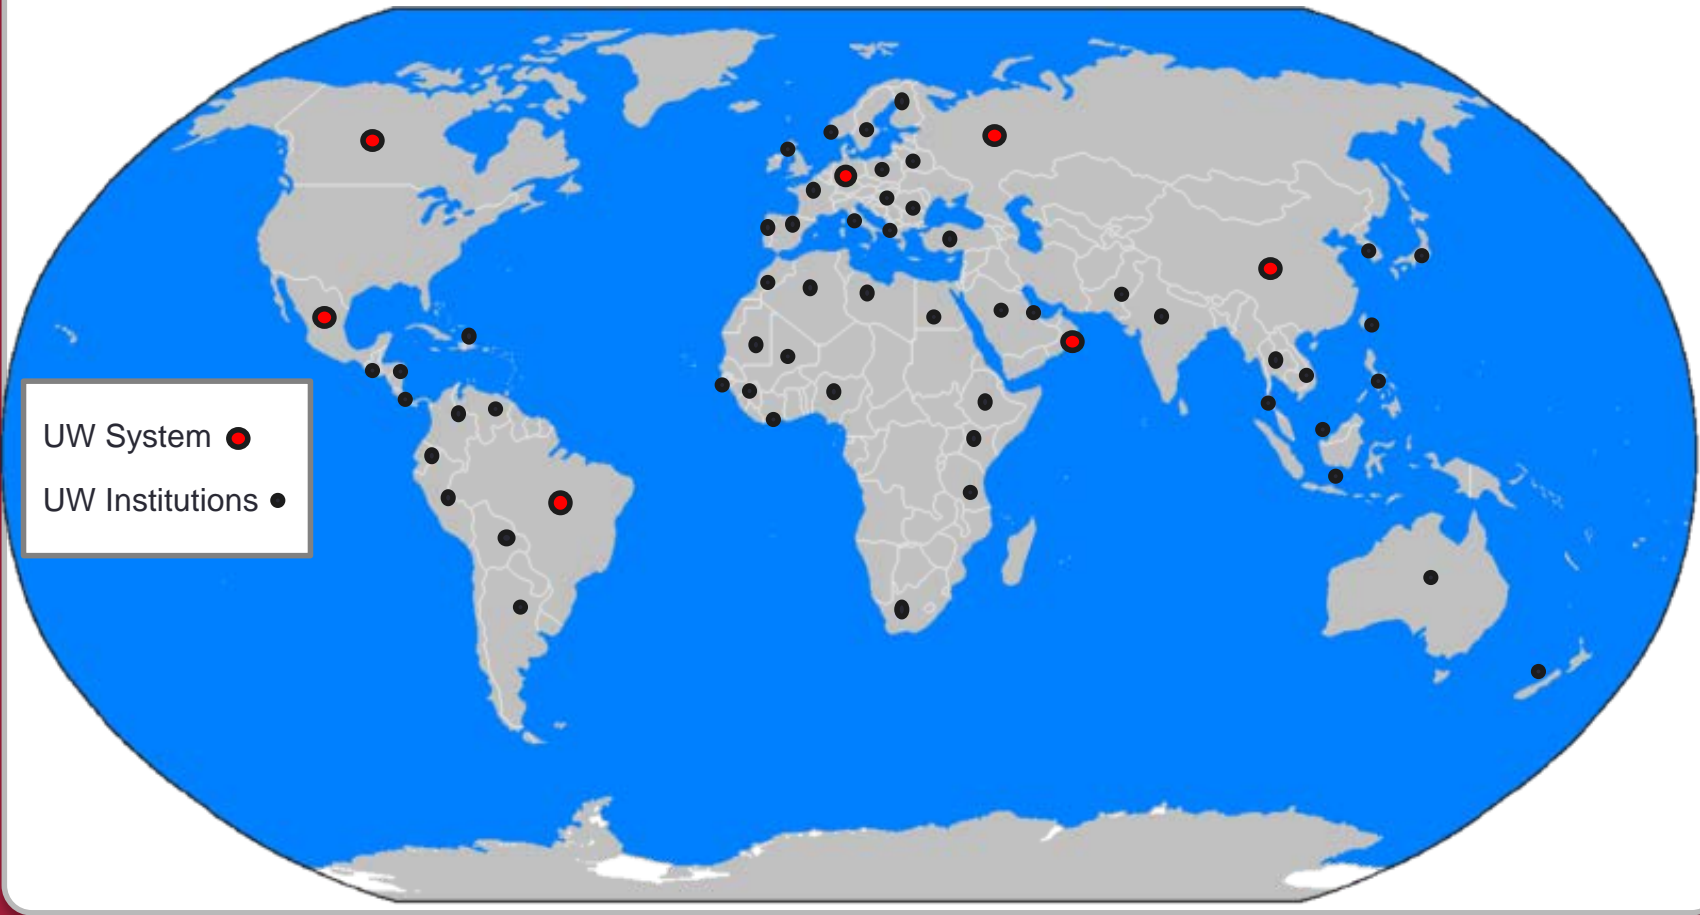

Mr. Brian Rivers, Secretary for the UW-Platteville Chapter of Engineers Without Borders USA and Student in Civil Engineering

Some Benefits of International Education*

- Global awareness and competence
- Language acquisition
- Global leadership and problem solving skills
- Personal growth
- Citizen diplomacy and world peace
- Employment competitiveness

Global Engagement and Partnerships

Selected Global Footprint *

* UW System Administration Office of Academic, Faculty, and Global Programs (AFGP).

Study Abroad by UW System Students 2013-14

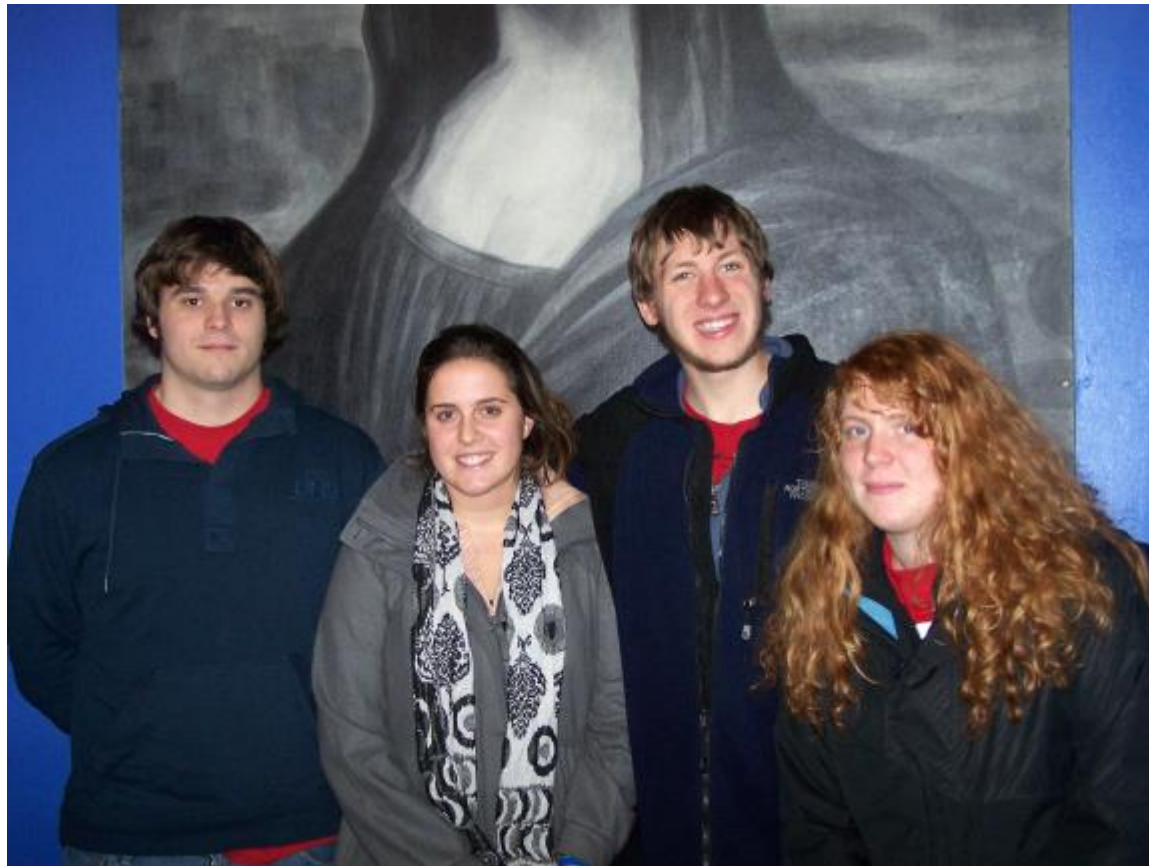

Total: 7,252 Students*

Destinations

Europe	38.3%
Central and South America	18.4%
U.S. Territories/Commonwealths	16.0%
Asia	14.5%
Africa	5.7%
Australia and New Zealand	4.2%
Canada and Mexico	2.2%
Middle East	0.7%

*Cultural Insurance Services International, 2014.

A Chance Encounter

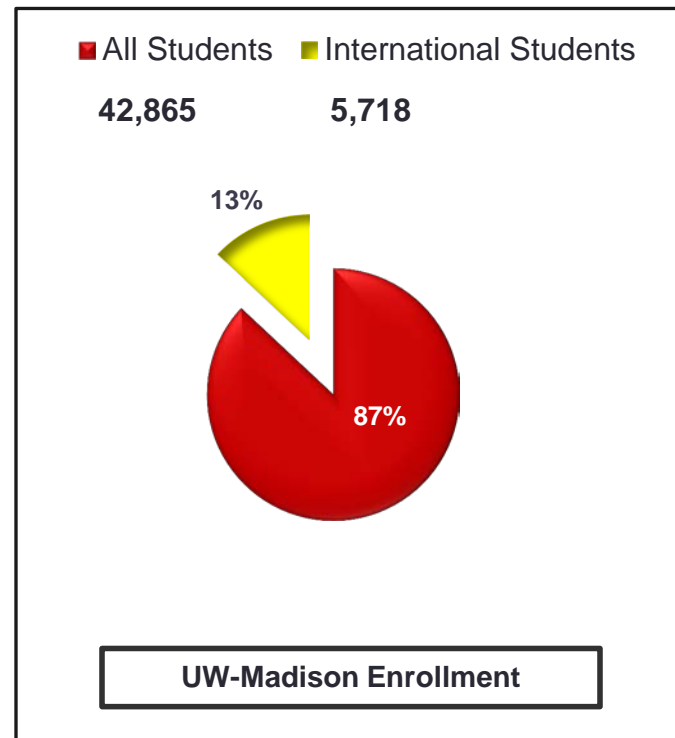

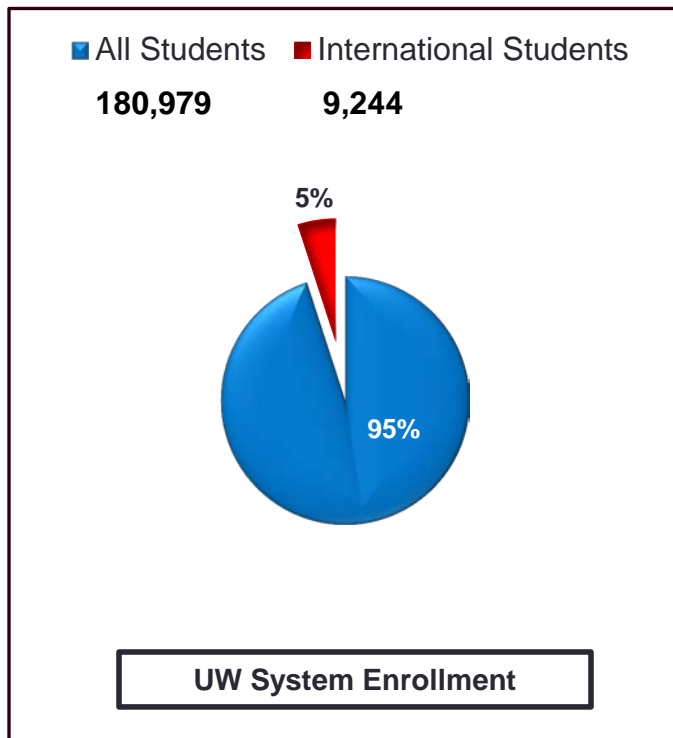

International Students by World Region of Origin

9,244 international students representing 134 different countries*

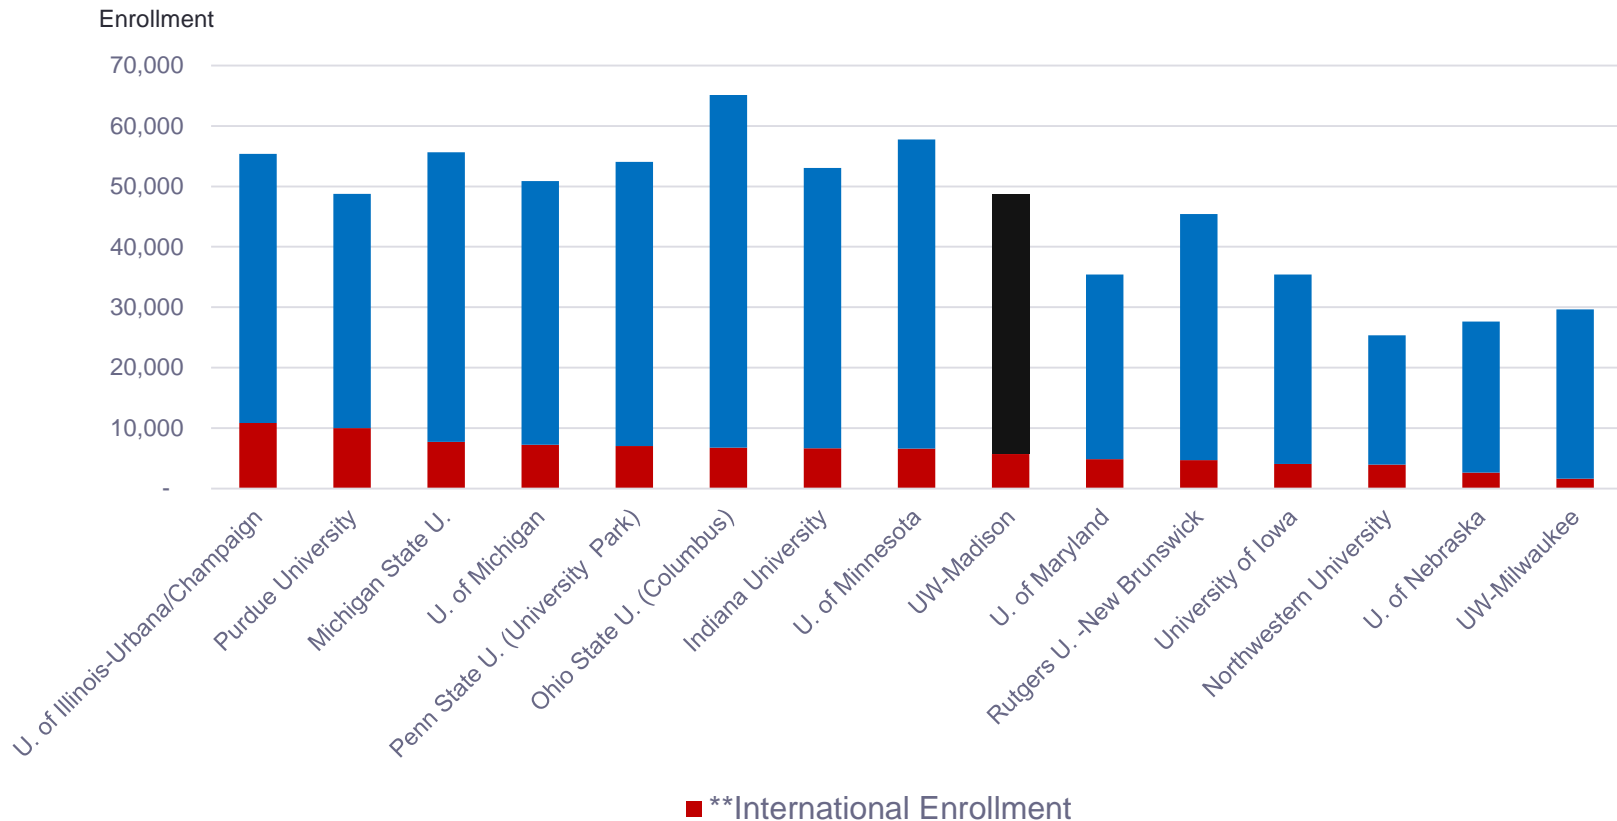

* UW System Administration Office of Policy Analysis and Research (OPAR).

UW System 2013-14 Student Headcount Enrollment*

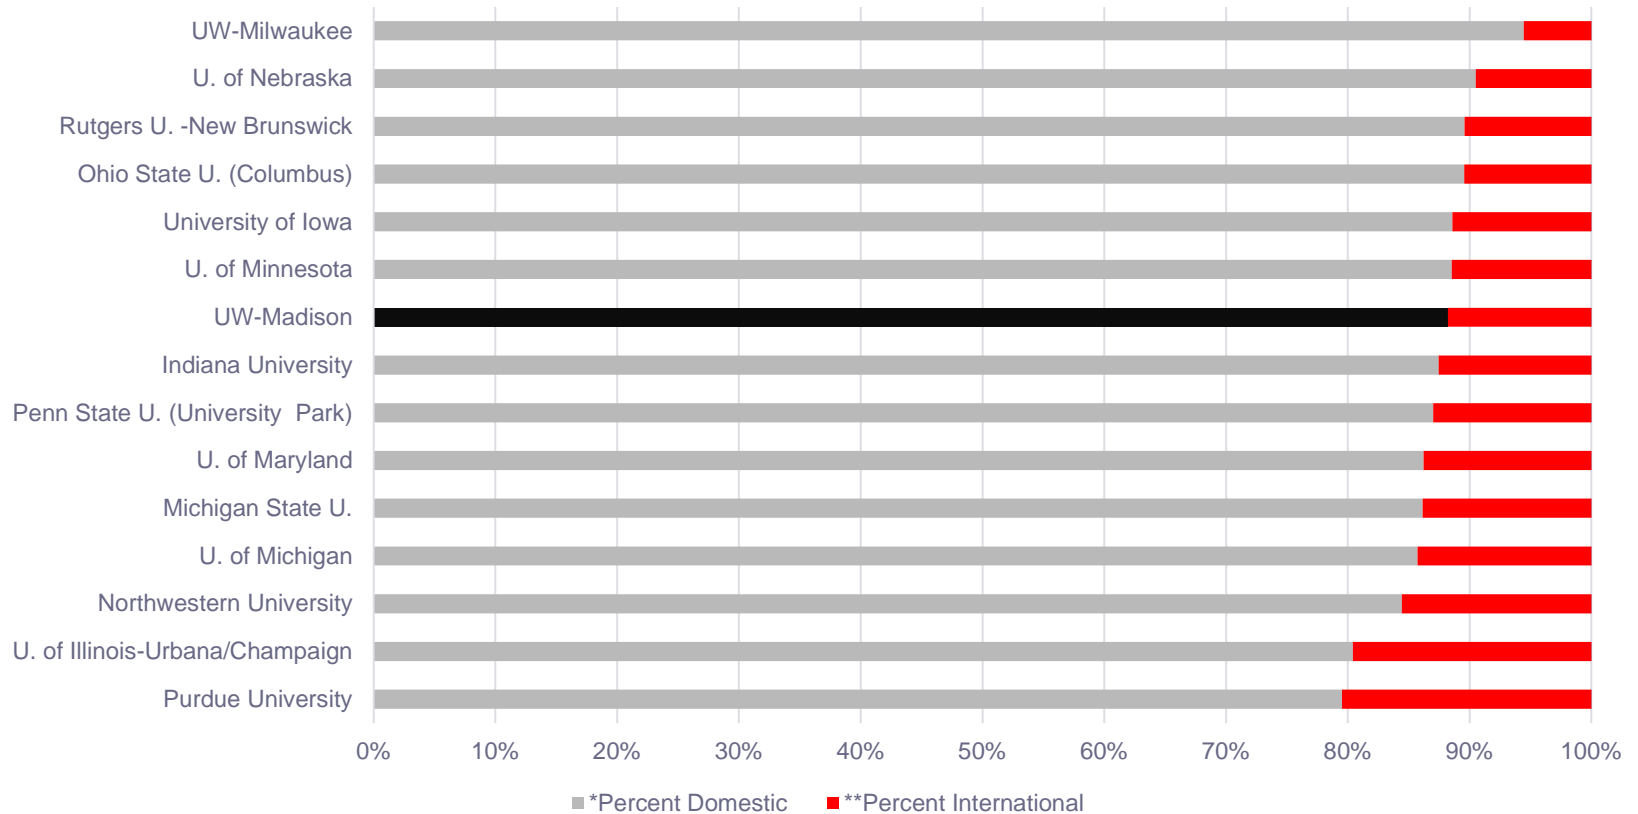

International Student Enrollment: Peer Comparison

 Institute of International Education; Open Doors report 2014.

International Student Enrollment: Peer Comparison

 Institute of International Education; Open Doors report 2014.

Contributions of International Students to Wisconsin

- Net contribution to the state's economy – $308.6 million.*
- Net jobs created/supported – 4,132.*
- Development of personal relationships between our citizens and other nationalities.

- Bring global perspectives into our classrooms and research labs.
- Contribute to innovations in science, technology, and engineering.
- Cultural enrichment of our institutions and state.
- Out-of-state tuition dollars.

Panel

Dr. Fernando Delgado, Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, UW-River Falls

Dr. Patrice Petro, Vice Provost for International Education, UW-Milwaukee

Dr. Cynthia Williams, Director of External Relations, Division of International Studies, UW-Madison

Mr. Brian Rivers, Secretary for the UW-Platteville Chapter of Engineers Without Borders USA and Student in Civil Engineering