Academic Program Planning

- Program planning process.
- Program array.
- Recent program activity.
- Bachelors degree completion programs.
New Academic Program Approval Process

- Entitlement to Plan.
- Authorization to implement.
- Implementation.
- Joint Review.
Entitlement to Plan

Request from Provost(s) addressing:
- Need and market demand.
- Relation to institutional mission.
- Relation to other UW System programs.
- Brief overview of curriculum.
- Funding source.

Circulated to all Provosts for review.

Entitlement decision by UWSA.
Authorization to Implement

- Development of Proposal.
- Review of proposal by:
  - Outside experts.
  - Campus governance committees.
  - Joint Program Review Committee.
- Submission of proposal to UWSA by Provost.
- Recommendation by UWSA to Board of Regents.
University of Wisconsin System
Program History

Academic Year

Number of Programs

EM I     EM II    EM III    EM 21

1980-1981: 1,200
1981-1982: 1,180
1982-1983: 1,160
1983-1984: 1,140
1984-1985: 1,120
1985-1986: 1,100
1986-1987: 1,080
1987-1988: 1,060
1988-1989: 1,040
1989-1990: (data not available)
1990-1991: (data not available)
1991-1992: (data not available)
1992-1993: (data not available)
1993-1994: (data not available)
1994-1995: (data not available)
1995-1996: (data not available)
1996-1997: (data not available)
1997-1998: (data not available)
1998-1999: (data not available)
1999-2000: (data not available)
2000-2001: (data not available)
2001-2002: (data not available)
2002-2003: (data not available)
2003-2004: (data not available)
Frequency of UW System Bachelor's Degree Programs