

Leading from the Center

Academic Programs to Advantage Central Wisconsin

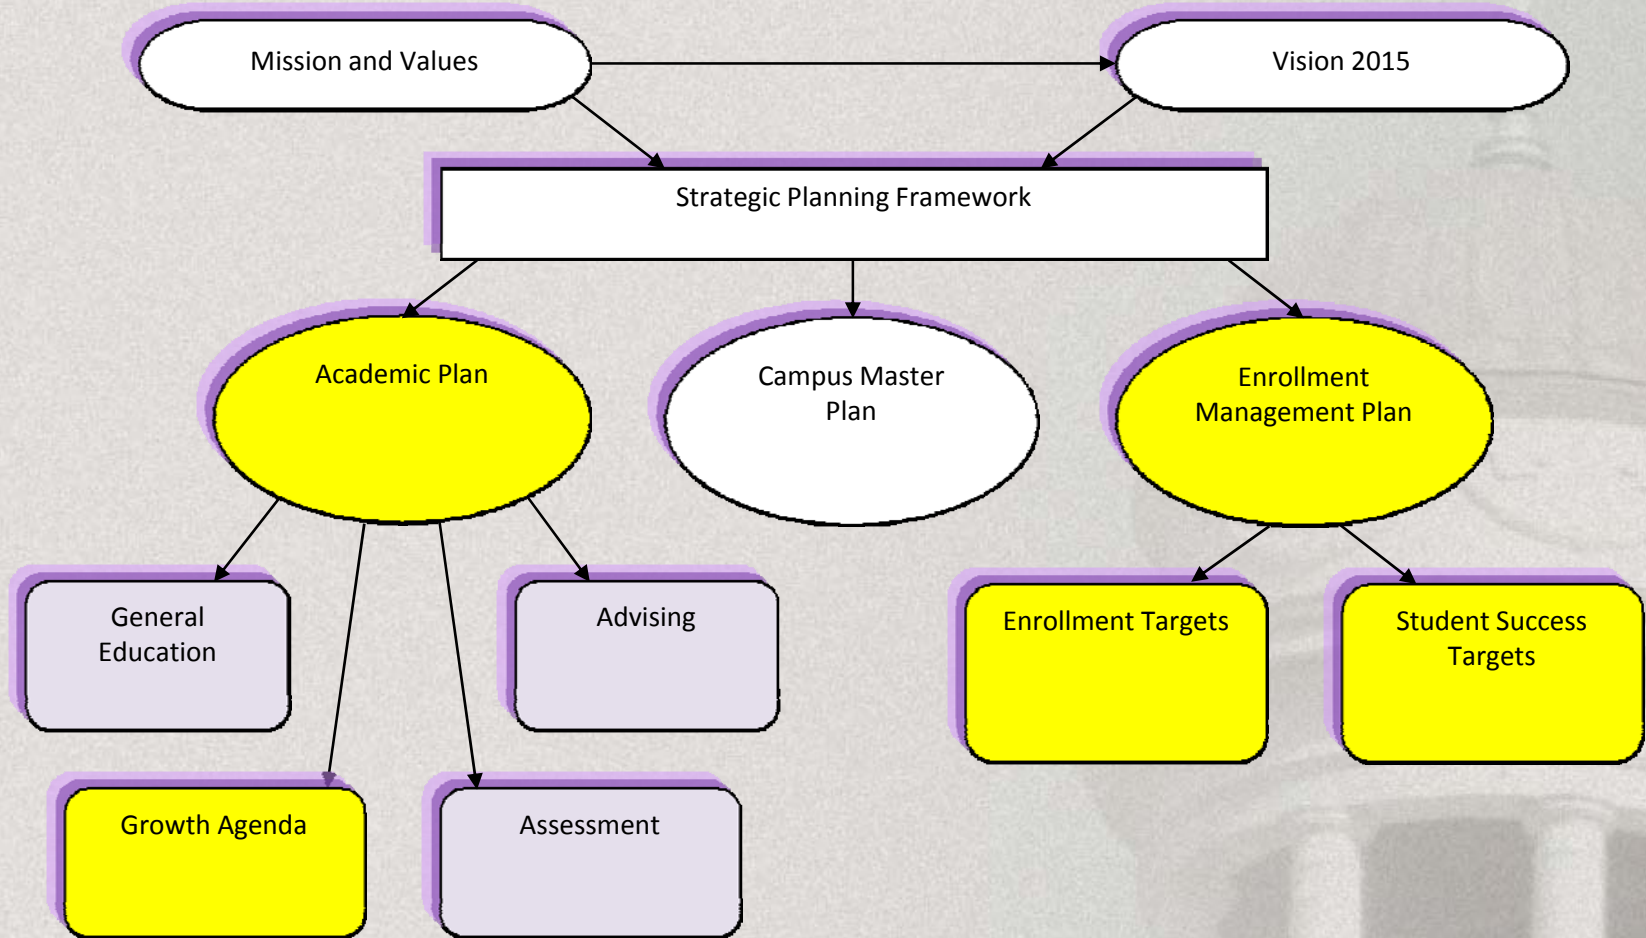

University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point
Connecting to the Future

UWSP Select Mission

- Communicative Disorders
- Teacher Education
- Home Economics
(Child & Family Studies, Dietetics, Early Childhood Education, Family and Consumer Education, Human Development, Nutrition, and Interior Architecture)
- Visual and Performing Arts
- Paper Science
- Natural Resources
- Wellness and Health Promotion
(Home of the National Wellness Institute)

Strategic Planning

UWSP Vision 2015

Building on traditions of excellence and service to Central Wisconsin, UWSP will CONNECT TO THE FUTURE by:

- Providing challenging learning and leadership experiences that prepare students to be GLOBAL CITIZENS
- Partnering with others for a VIBRANT FUTURE

UWSP Vision 2015

- Project our history and values in the LIFE AND LOOK OF THE CAMPUS
 - Experience of the liberal arts and sciences
 - Responsibility for personal and community wellness
 - Stewardship of natural resources
 - The power of communication and the arts

The UWSP Growth Agenda

A Six-Year Plan Built Upon:

- UWSP Mission
- Vision 2015
UWSP's Vision Statement
- Advantage Wisconsin
- CENTERGY Report and Development

- Biofuels and Alternative Energy Production
- Enhance the existing world-class paper making assets and labor pool
- Health Care: research, medical education and training, regional health care delivery, medical supplies, medical software, and bioinformatics
- Logistics
- Agriculture and Food Processing
- Increase Research Activity
- New Business Development
- Workforce Education

The UWSP Growth Agenda

- Wisconsin Institute for Sustainable Technology (WIST)
- Health Sciences
- Business and Economics
- New Media Development
- International Programs

Wisconsin Institute for Sustainable Technology

Goals

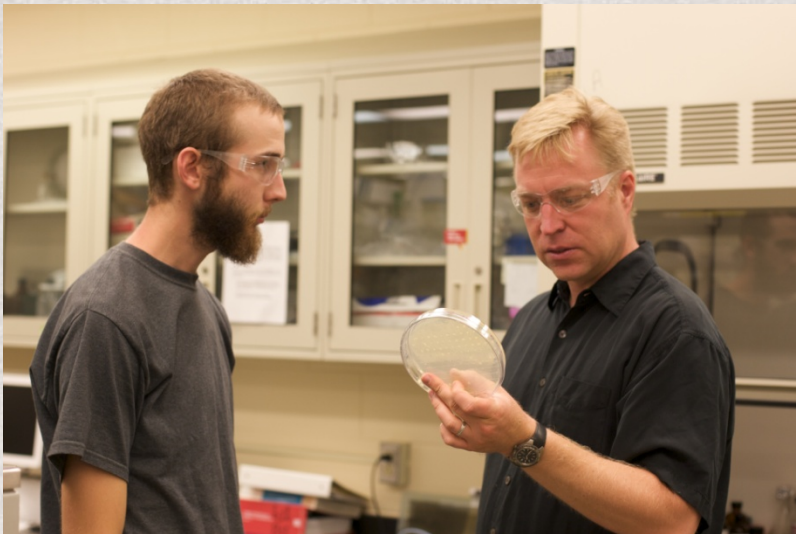

- Sustainable Resource Utilization
- Innovation and support for Paper and Wood Industries
- Develop new natural resource based products, services and business opportunities
- Educate WI leaders and policy makers concerning bio-based economy

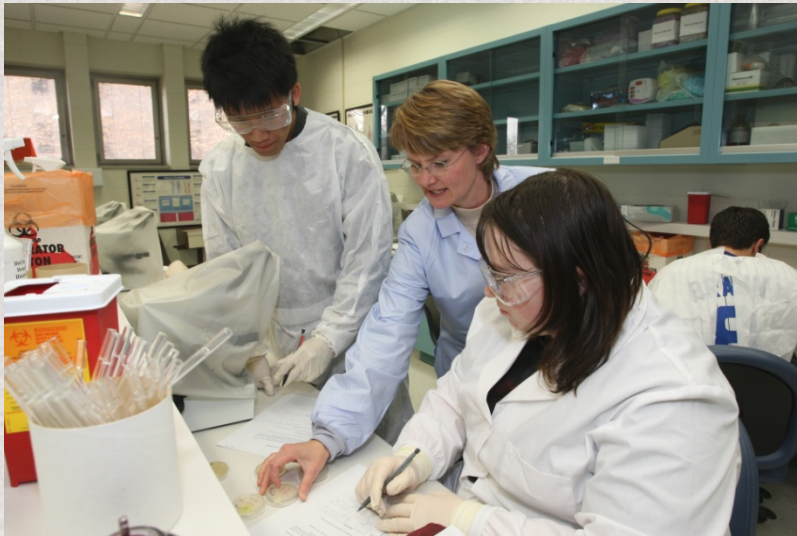

Wisconsin Institute for Sustainable Technology

Structure

- Interdisciplinary; paper science & engineering, soils & waters, forestry, biology, chemistry, physics, math, business & economics, philosophy, communication...
- Flexible with initial focus on bio-fuels (especially non-foods based) and bio-refineries

Health Sciences

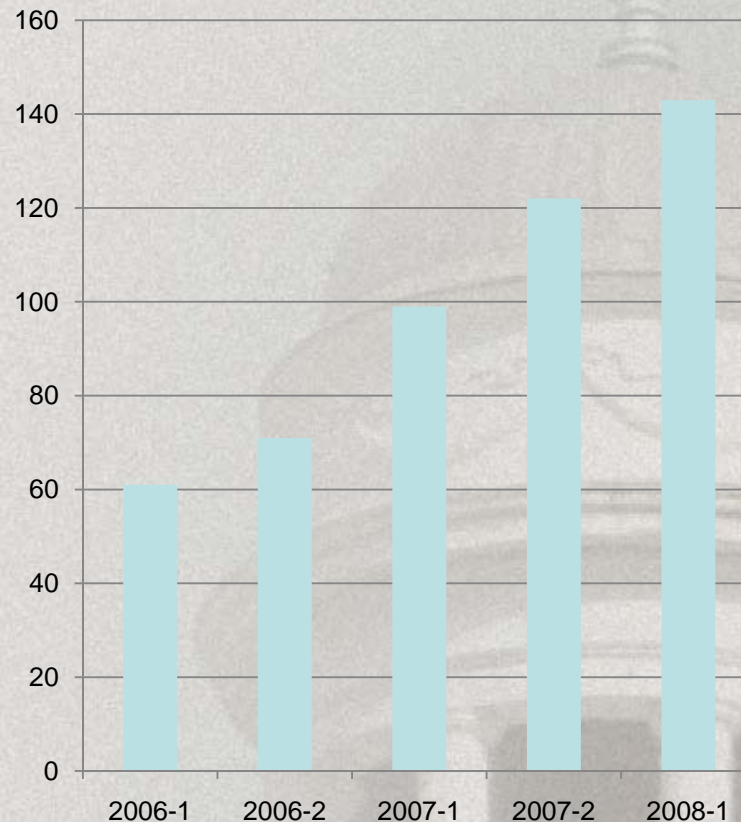

- Health Care Administration
- Health Care Informatics
- Pre-Nursing
- Pre-Occupational Therapy
- Pre-Physical Therapy
- Clinical Laboratory Sciences

Health Sciences

- Support for Growth of Current Program in Health Science
- Master of Science in Informatics*

- Potential Nursing Program

Business and Economics

- Business Administration
- Accounting
- Economics
- Entrepreneurship
- International Business
- Management
- Marketing
- Finance, Insurance and Real Estate

New Media Development

- New Media Design
- Web and Digital Media Design
- Masters of Science Informatics/Software and Web Development

International Programs

- 20% of UWSP Graduates have Studied in a foreign country
- UWSP sent 540 students (460 Pointers) on study abroad programs this past year

International Programs

- Lead the system in developing new opportunities
- Increase student participation rates to 30%
- Increase number of International Students on campus

Academic Programs to Advantage Central Wisconsin

On Point!

