Why Investments are Changing

It is the University's goal to provide a top-tier, low-cost supplemental retirement program for participants.

Best practice is to offer leading providers and proven investment options with a simple and engaging participant experience.

We want it to be easy for you to:

- Enroll
  - Select investments
  - Monitor performance

How Investments were Selected

Program review was begun in 2017.

RFP issued in 2018 and Consultants hired in spring 2019:

- Aon Investments USA Inc – recordkeeping & investment review
- Willis Towers Watson – communications

The TSA Review Committee formed subcommittees to evaluate:

- recordkeepers
  - investment line-up
  - communications
- and determine next steps.

Investment Subcommittee

- Subcommittee composition: 5 TSARC members (now named SRPAC) with investment and behavioral finance backgrounds, supported by UW System staff
  - Aon Investments USA Inc served as resource
  - Based on program feedback, worked to select a limited yet diverse investment line-up – to combat decision fatigue many enrollees face
  - First chose types of investments to include; then selected the funds
  - For those who may want more choice: a self-directed brokerage window
  - Fund line-up included in Request For Proposal (RFP) soliciting recordkeeper(s) for the program published August 2020

Overview of Changes

- Two Recordkeepers chosen in RFP
    - TIAA and Fidelity

  - TIAA & Fidelity have virtually the same Core Investment Line-up:
    - Target Retirement Date Funds
    - 16 best-in-class mutual funds
    - One annuity option
(differs between recordkeepers)

  - Self-directed brokerage window
(separate window for each recordkeeper)

Self-Directed Brokerage Window

- Both TIAA and Fidelity provide a brokerage window – easy to set up and easy to see once you have signed up.
- No fee to use the brokerage window; HOWEVER, individual funds may have transaction fees. These are clearly noted.
- 98% of assets can be invested in the brokerage window.
- Once you make an initial fund purchase, you can sign up for automatic deferrals.

TIAA Brokerage Window

TIAA will waive transaction fees on any funds with transaction fees for calendar year 2022 – this includes all Vanguard Funds.

TIAA does not offer any funds with loads in their window.

There are 1000s of funds to choose from; you can sort by type or fund family, e.g., T. Rowe Price.

Fidelity BrokerageLink

Fidelity also 1000s of funds to choose from. They do offer funds with loads.

In addition, Fidelity also offers a number of Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) (approved for 403(b) plans). ETFs are reputed to be low-cost.

Also – you can get all your current Fidelity funds in the brokerage window and move the funds in-kind to the brokerage window.

All Fidelity Funds can move In-Kind to Fidelity BrokerageLink!

These funds retain low-cost share class
but no new contributions

- Fidelity Freedom Funds (Target Date)
- FGKFX Fidelity Growth Company, Class K6
- FKEMX Fidelity Emerging Markets Fund, Class K
- FKICX Fidelity Small Cap Stock Fund, Class K6
- FKIDX Fidelity Diversified International Fund, Class K6
- FMGKX Fidelity Magellan Fund, Class K

All Fidelity funds are available

- 27 Fidelity Funds formerly K or K6, now retail
- 154 Fidelity funds did not previously have a special share class – like Fidelity 500 Index Fund, Fidelity Total Market Index Fund, Fidelity US Bond Index Fund, and many others –
they are *all still available!

If you move in-kind – it's all or nothing.

You move 100% of your assets.

Many T. Rowe Price Funds are available!

Yes, 14 popular T. Rowe Price funds are closed to new investments.

BUT – Over 120 T. Rowe Price Funds ARE AVAILABLE through either TIAA or Fidelity Brokerage windows.

For example, T. Rowe Price Target Date Funds, Blue Chip Growth, Large Cap Value, Science & Technology, Health Sciences and more ARE available.

If you have a distributable event (at least 59 ½ OR no longer working for the UW) you can take a distribution & roll over your funds into a T. Rowe Price IRA.

TIAA & Fidelity will help you!

Representatives cannot provide investment advice for the brokerage window.

BUT they will help you set it up (you must take the action), determine deferral elections, explain how to make a transaction, and answer questions.

There are Brokerage window fact sheets and helpful information under the Resources; you can also sign up for individual counseling.

Before investing in any investment option, consider the investment objectives, risks, charges, and expenses. Contact your SRP recordkeeper for additional investment option information.

Recordkeepers & Fees

A recordkeeper uses its platform to track the plan's investments.

In addition, Fidelity & TIAA provide a full range of plan services, communicate with participants, provide a comprehensive website and mobile apps, individual counseling, webinars, and more.

How are companies compensated for the recordkeeping and all the services?

Currently, recordkeeping and administrative fees are deducted from your investment option(s) and vary depending on the investments you hold in the plan. Included in the expense ratios, there is "revenue sharing." These fees are not specifically detailed on your account statements.

The University will be returning revenue to UW 403(b) SRP T. Rowe Price, Fidelity and TIAA participant accounts in November.

Revenue has been returned twice in the past.

Fees – beginning in 2022

- To be transparent, fees will be clearly identified on your quarterly statements.
  - Plan investments will be as low-cost as possible.
  - The UW 403(b) SRP will not receive revenue from our recordkeepers.
  - To encourage new participants in the SRP, fee tiers have been established.
  - Each company will charge a recordkeeping and administrative fee as a flat dollar amount, based on the size of your account.

Recordkeeping & Administrative Fees

Next Steps by Recordkeeper

- Program changes are effective January 1, 2022.
- Your first affected paycheck will be on January 13, 2022, and
- Account balances will move over in the first weeks of 2022.

Some changes are recordkeeper-specific. Details are on the 403(b) Program Enhancements page, but we will briefly touch on some key points for each.

TIAA and Fidelity

Current Participants with TIAA and Fidelity:

- Your contributions and account balances will remain with your current recordkeeper.
  - Account balances in TIAA Annuity products will remain where they are.
  - Mutual fund account balances and all future contributions for both recordkeepers will be moved to the new investment line-up.

Important: No balances will remain in current mutual fund investments, effective January 2022.

Action needed beginning November 1, 2021:

- Access the Investment Pre-Selection Window (link for your recordkeeper on the 403(b) Program Enhancements webpage) to choose new investments that will be available effective January 1, 2022. Select new investments from the core line-up or work in the self-directed brokerage window.

If you take no action:

- Your account balances and contributions will remain with your current recordkeeper; however, the investments that your contributions and mutual fund account balance will be invested in will change to an age-appropriate Vanguard Target Date Fund.

T. Rowe Price

Current participants of T. Rowe Price:

- Your contributions and account balances will move to the recordkeeper you chose during Annual Benefits Enrollment (ABE) for 2022 – TIAA or Fidelity. If you didn't make a choice during ABE, you can turn in a Salary Reduction Agreement (SRA) by December 10, 2021.
  - Both your account balance and future contributions will move to your new recordkeeper – TIAA or Fidelity – under the new investment line-up. No balances will be left with T. Rowe Price.
  - If you don't want to contribute in 2022, you can still choose to move your account to Fidelity by contacting Fidelity.

Action needed beginning November 1, 2021:

- Choose new investments online with your new recordkeeper effective January 2022. Select new investments from the core line-up or work in the self-directed brokerage window.

If you take no action:

- If you do not choose a new recordkeeper, you will be defaulted to TIAA.
  - If you do not make investment selections, your account balance and any future contributions will be invested in an age-appropriate Vanguard Target Date Fund.

T. Rowe Price Balance Transfer Timeline

Balances will first move from T. Rowe Price to Fidelity

- For participants moving to Fidelity: the blackout begins 12/31/2021 and will continue through the week of January 16.

Next T. Rowe Price balances will move to TIAA

- For participants moving to TIAA: the blackout begins 01/07/2021 and will continue through the week of January 23.

Ameriprise & Lincoln

Current participants of Ameriprise and/or Lincoln:

- Future contributions will move to the new recordkeeper you chose during Annual Benefits Enrollment (ABE) – TIAA or Fidelity – under the new investment line-up. If you didn't make a choice during ABE, you can turn in a Salary Reduction Agreement (SRA) to your benefits office by December 30, 2021 (for the January 13 pay date).
- Your account balance will remain with your current recordkeeper.

Action needed beginning November 1, 2021:

- Access the Investment Pre-Selection Window link for your new recordkeeper on the 403(b) Program Enhancements webpage to choose new investments that will be effective on January 1, 2022. Select new investments from the core line-up or work in the self-directed brokerage window.

If you take no action:

- If you do not choose a new recordkeeper, your future contributions will be defaulted to TIAA.
  - If you do not make investment selections during the Investment Pre-selection Window, your future contributions will be invested in an age-appropriate Vanguard Target Date Fund.
  - Reminder: Your account balance will remain with your current recordkeeper.

UW 403(b) Program Enhancements

The UW 403\(b\) Supplemental Retirement Program \(SRP\), formerly the UW Tax-Sheltered Annuity (TSA) 403(b) Program, offers all UW System employees the tax-advantaged opportunity to invest a portion of your income to help prepare for a secure financial future. The UW 403(b) SRP is unique, because it's managed by the UW System and an advisory committee (The SRP Advisory Committee (SRPAC), formerly the TSA Review Committee) specifically for UW System employees. Currently, the program is under review for updates and enhancements with the following goals in mind:

- Offering leading provider(s)
- Providing proven investment options
- Communicating with participants in a simple and engaging manner

As a part of this process, UW System and TSA Review Committee teams reviewed the program, including current providers and investment options, with an eye to cost-effectiveness, simplification and ease of use for our participants. UW System's goal is to make it easy to enroll, select investments, and monitor investment performance on an ongoing basis.

The UW System team is committed to sharing more throughout this review process and as decisions are made over the coming year. UW System's objective is to be transparent and informative, with regular communications to participants and the UW System community as a whole. We will be sending out communications from time to time, but this website will serve as an ongoing communication tool that will be regularly updated with information as it is available. Please bookmark this site and check back to stay updated on our progress.
