State of Wisconsin 2024 Commuter Benefit Program Enrollment

Start taking control of your account today

Commuter benefits provide tax savings for your work transportation costs like subway fares, train tickets, shared rides and parking. By paying for your commute with pre-tax dollars, you reduce your taxable income.

1. You can enroll within 30 days of your date of hire, (in an eligible position), or at any time. Coverage will be effective the first of the month on or following your eligibility date.
   Note: You must re-enroll each year, enrollments do not carry forward.

2. Sign up during the annual benefits enrollment period: September 25, 2023 - October 20, 2023

3. Decide how much you want to set aside each month for eligible expenses. Your contributions will be withheld from each paycheck before taxes and credited to your account.

Note:
Spouses and dependent children are not eligible.
If you park at your place of employment, your deductions may already be taken pre-tax. These deductions are not reimbursable through this program.

Note:
UW Hospitals & Clinics employees are not eligible to participate in Commuter Benefits.
What’s new?

There is a minimum annual election amount of $50 for Commuter Benefits.

Commuter Account balance less than $50 by the end of 2023 requires a minimum election in 2024 for the balance to be carried over. Balances greater than $50 will automatically be carried over.

Why have a Commuter Account?

Commuter Benefits cover a variety of eligible transportation expenses to travel to work, including trains, buses, subways, ferries, vanpools and ride shares through Lyft Shared, UberPool and Via. Additionally, the plan also includes coverage of work-related parking costs.

Flexibility

You can enroll in both a Parking and Transit Account at anytime, if you are eligible.

Commuter Account funds become available as payroll deductions are taken.

- If you enroll in Parking, funds are loaded to a payment card. If you also have a flexible spending account or health savings account, our stacked card technology allows you to use the same card for parking account expenses.
- If you enroll in Transit or use personal funds to pay for Parking, you just need to submit claims for reimbursement.
- You can enroll or make changes to your payroll deduction amount anytime during the plan year.
- Unlimited carryover amount, so there is limited risk of contributions being forfeited.

Tax and environmental savings

Easiest way to pay for eligible commuter expenses with tax-free funds.

- Pre-tax payroll deductions reduce your taxable income.
- Save money on gas while improving air quality and reducing energy consumption, automobile congestion and greenhouse gas emissions.

Contribution limits

There are contribution limits, set by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and adjusted annually. The limits for 2024 are:

- $300/month for Parking Account
- $300/month for Transit Account
Tax savings

By paying for your commute with pre-tax dollars, you reduce your taxable income. As a result of saving your hard-earned money before taxes to pay for this daily cost, you save more on Social Security and income tax.

How much money can I save?
You can contribute up to the IRS limits, saving hundreds. In 2024, you can set aside $300 dollars pre-tax each month for eligible transit and parking expenses. Assuming a tax rate of 30%, the average commuter saves $162 dollars per month in taxes.

If that’s your standard monthly spend, that adds up fast – up to $1,944 each year.

Frequently asked questions

1. What happens to the funds in my Commuter Account(s) if I terminate from my position?
   The last day to incur expenses and reimbursement from your Parking and/or Transit Account is the date you terminate from your position. Upon your termination date, you will forfeit the remaining funds in your Commuter Account(s).

2. Can I use the Transit Account to pay for vanpool expenses already deducted through my payroll?
   No, you are not eligible to use the Transit Account for reimbursement of vanpool expenses already deducted through your employer payroll.

3. How can I be reimbursed for Commuter expenses if I do not have a receipt?
   If you did not obtain a receipt for a Commuter expense, you can submit an attestation form to certify the expense occurred and is eligible for reimbursement. Visit myoptumfinancial.com/etf to obtain a copy of the form.

4. Can my spouse and dependents enroll in the Commuter benefits?
   No, spouses and dependent children are not eligible to utilize or participate in the Commuter benefit.

5. When is the last day to submit my Commuter expenses for reimbursements?
   March 31, 2025 is the last day to correct or submit claims for Commuter expenses incurred during the 2024 plan year. It is recommended you submit all of your Commuter expenses before the plan year ends on December 31, because after runout period ends on March 31, you are no longer able to submit prior year claims for reimbursement.

6. Can I change my monthly contribution during the plan year?
   Yes, you can increase or decrease your Parking or Transit Account election at any time during the year, even without having experienced a qualified life change event.

7. Can excess funds be paid out in a cash arrangement?
   The Internal Revenue Service does not allow excess funds to be paid out in a cash arrangement. Transit and Parking funds can only be used to pay for eligible Commuter expenses.

8. Can I transfer my available funds into an FSA?
   No, the IRS does not permit transferring of funds from a commuter benefit account into an FSA.
