This endorsement, effective January 1, 2016, forms a part of Policy No. GTU 8364005, issued to The Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin.

It is hereby understood and agreed that effective January 1, 2016 item “B.” under the heading Effective Date of Insurance for the Insured as it appears in SECTION I – ELIGIBILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATES OF INSURANCE is amended as follows:

B. For eligible individuals hired on or after January 1, 2016:
   New Hire/Eligibility Waiting Period: Coverage is effective the first of the month following thirty (30) days of eligible employment, provided an employee elects coverage within the first thirty (30) days of being newly eligible for this insurance.

   Employees who do not enroll during their new hire eligibility period, coverage is effective on the first of the month following the date the eligible employee submits the application to the institution benefits office. If filed on the first day of the month, coverage is effective that day.

   Employees and Dependents must be actively enrolled in the Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) coverage in order to file an insurance claim under this Policy.

Except for the above, this Amendatory Endorsement does not vary, alter, waive, or extend any of the terms of the Policy to which it is attached.
