UW 403(b) SRP Participant Obligations

The following applies to all participants in the University of Wisconsin 403(b) Supplemental Retirement Program (SRP):

1. Federal Contribution Limits: SRP contributions are subject to annual limits determined under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) sec. 402(g) and 415(c). In 2021, the limit is $19,500 (or 100% of UW compensation, if less). If you are age 50 or older in 2021, you may contribute an additional $6,500. If you have 15 years of UW employment, you may be eligible to contribute a further $3,000: ask your human resources office about this option; not everyone with 15 years of service is eligible. Limit information is available on the website. Your UW SRP limit is reduced dollar for dollar by any contribution you make to another 403(b), 401(k), Federal Thrift Savings, salary reduction SEP, or SIMPLE plan. If you own more than 50% of a business, retirement contributions made on your behalf by that business must be aggregated with your UW SRP contributions toward the 415(c) limit – $58,000 in 2021. Contact SRP staff at uwshr@uwsa.edu to be sure you have not exceeded IRS contribution limits. Contributions to a 457 (Deferred Compensation) plan or to a traditional or Roth IRA do NOT affect your SRP limit.
Over-contributions may result in tax penalties. You are solely responsible for the tax consequences of authorizing any salary reduction that exceeds the amounts allowed by law. It is your responsibility to monitor your annual salary reductions to ensure that they are in compliance with the IRC provisions and bring any over-contributions or changes in employment status to the attention of your human resources office.
2. Investment Responsibility: You are responsible for your SRP investment decisions. This responsibility includes informing yourself of the nature and risk of the investments, monitoring your investments, and determining when a change in investments is appropriate. The University and the Board of Regents are in no way liable for gains or losses you may incur in your SRP account(s).
3. Authorized Providers: As long as the UW employs you, you may make contributions only to providers and products authorized under the program. You may change your future contributions to a different authorized option, or transfer all or a portion of your account balance to any other authorized investment option at any time, subject to contractual surrender charges or redemption fees. As long as the UW employs you, you may not “transfer” your SRP account balances to providers or options not authorized by the program.
4. Withdrawals and Loans: Generally, you cannot withdraw or roll over your SRP account balances before you attain age 59 ½, terminate employment, die, or become disabled. Withdrawals may also be available as ordered by a court under a Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO). Loans, in amounts limited by federal law, are available from authorized UW SRP providers. The SRP provider is responsible for approving loans according to IRS and UW SRP Plan provisions. No more than two loans may be outstanding at any time. Hardship withdrawals are not available. The provider is responsible for determining your eligibility for other withdrawals.
Tax penalties may apply to distributions before age 59 ½ – if you terminate employment before reaching age 55. You are entirely responsible for all loans and withdrawals and any resulting tax liabilities.
5. Salary Reduction Agreement (SRA) Termination: To stop your contributions, you must file a new copy of the SRA with your human resources office. If you terminate employment, your SRA terminates automatically after your last check is paid. If you later return to work, you must file a new SRA to resume contributing. The UW reserves the right to suspend or terminate a participant's SRA if it believes that the participant has overcontributed or is in violation of any applicable federal requirement or any term of this agreement.
6. Required Distributions: After you retire, you must take minimum distributions from your SRP account, generally beginning no later than age 70 ½. You do not need to take Required Minimum Distributions from your UW SRP accounts as long as you are still working for the UW, even part-time and even though you may be over age 70 ½.
7. Effective Date: Unless you specify a later effective date, this agreement takes effect on the first paycheck date following the employer's receipt of this form. Forms received less than 15 business days before payday may not take effect until the following pay period.
8. Corrections: It is your responsibility to verify that this SRA has been accurately processed by comparing it to your earnings statement. Contact your HR office if you find a discrepancy. In volatile markets, the value of your contribution may decline over time. The UW will correct, at our cost, errors reported to us within two months. The participant must bear the cost due to any market decline to correct any portion of errors that are more than two months old.
