WASTE MANAGEMENT SUPERVISOR

I. DEFINITIONS

WASTE MANAGEMENT SUPERVISOR

Under general supervision, positions at this level typically function as a waste management unit leader at a UW System institution.

Duties include: effectively recommending the hiring, assignment, evaluation, discipline, and adjustment of grievances of subordinate employees; supervising, coordinating, and reviewing the work of professional waste management specialists and others to assure conformance with established policy, procedures, and standards; planning and conducting training and orientation for waste management specialists, related technical employees and others, and instructing/training them in the appropriate methods of waste management techniques; directing the preparation of materials for presentation to the appropriate department, state, or local personnel for further follow-up, analysis or remedial action; analyzing waste management and related programs and assisting in the development and implementation of improved waste management related analyses, evaluation, and regulatory techniques and procedures; recommending needed changes to applicable laws, rules, regulations, polices, and procedures to higher level supervisors and program administrators; participating in or responsible for the performance of special project activities relating to the development of new waste management regulations and/or the revisions of existing ones; giving expert testimony in court; maintaining liaison and working contacts with federal, state, and local natural resources, environmental and/or other waste management and related agencies, other regulatory agencies, and other pertinent persons and/or organizations; coordinating joint scientific investigations or related activities as required with other agencies or regulatory bodies; and conducting informational activities relative to the interpretation and application of the objectives and requirements of waste management and related programs. General supervision is received from higher-level supervisors or managers.

II. QUALIFICATIONS

The qualifications required for these positions will be determined at the time of recruitment.