Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

OPID's Faculty College is an annual professional development experience for faculty, instructors, and lecturers in the Universities of Wisconsin. It originated in 1979 and was held at Marinette County for 20 years then moved to UW-Richland Center in 2000 for another 20 years. The 46th Annual Faculty College will take place at The Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake on May 26-27, 2026. This our fifth year at this location. (Faculty College was cancelled in 2020 and held on-line in 2021.)

What is the focus of Faculty College 2026?

Our theme for Faculty College 2026 is Co-creating Healthy Learning Ecosystems.

Who are our guest facilitators at Faculty College 2026?

Our guest facilitators are internationally known scholars Dr. Mays Imad (Connecticut College) and Dr. Bryan Dewsbury (Florida International University), both with STEM degrees who apply innovative pedagogies to interdisciplinary spaces. Dr. Imad is a neuroscientist and Dr. Dewsbury is a biologist. Many UW educators will remember Dr. Dewsbury as the opening plenary speaker at OPID's 2024 Spring Conference on Teaching & Learning.

Who should attend Faculty College 2025?

Universities are invited to nominate 8-10 participants: two OPID Advisory Council members, two 2026-27 Wisconsin Teaching Fellows & Scholars (WTFS), and six additional educators – faculty, instructors, or lecturers, with teaching and learning responsibilities. (Universities not participating in WTFS may nominate up to 8 participants.)

What are suggested activities for university teams before and during Faculty College?

Before – University teams should meet each other online and/or in person to begin community building.

During – Come to Faculty College with an open mind. Seek new ideas and possibilities for approaching teaching and learning. Interact with colleagues from other Universities of Wisconsin, and engage in conversations with your university cohort. Meals and an evening fire circle at the lake are opportunities for socializing and connecting with colleagues. On the last day of Faculty College, there will be team-time to reflect and share ideas from Faculty College to implement in your teaching and learning for the 2026-27 academic year.

What is planned for the 2025-26 Wisconsin Teaching Fellows & Scholars (WTFS) at Faculty College?

The 2025-26 cohort will launch its year-long WTFS program on Tuesday, May 27, with an afternoon gathering led by Co-directors Sarah Riforgiate (UW-Milwaukee) and Georjeanna Wilson-Doenges (UW-Green Bay). Plenary workshops co-facilitated by Mays Imad and Bryan Dewsbury will inform the year-long WTFS and SoTL projects.

When does Faculty College begin and end for participants not in the WTFS?

Hotel registration begins at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, May 26. Faculty College registration is located outside of the Conference Center Ballroom and begins at 4 p.m. Dinner is scheduled at 6 p.m. Faculty College ends on Friday, May 29, by noon.

Who pays for Faculty College?

UWSA's Office of Professional & Instructional Development (OPID) will continue to pay for lodging (double suites), meals, and programming for up to 10 participants at each institution. Institutions are responsible for reimbursing faculty and instructors for mileage and meals & incidentals traveling to and from Faculty College. Carpooling is strongly encouraged. Parking at the Osthoff Resort is free.

Is it necessary to stay at The Osthoff Resort or can participants commute from home?

Participants should not only stay at The Osthoff Resort, but stay for its entirety. Participants who are unable to begin and end with the group should postpone their Faculty College attendance.

What lodging accommodations are available?

Participants will be assigned to a double suite, each with two private bedrooms and two bathrooms. Bedding, towels, and toiletries are provided. There is also a fully equipped kitchen, sitting area, flat-screen TV, and wireless connection. Participants are encouraged to bring their own snacks and water bottle. Coffee and tea will be served during morning breaks.

May I request a suite-mate?

Yes, you may request to share a double suite with a specific person. If requests are not mutual, we will assign you to a suite with someone from another university to facilitate inter-university relationships. WTFS 2025-26 participants will be assigned to a suite with another WTFS participant.

May I request a private single room?

Yes, there are a limited number of single rooms with an attached bathroom and refrigerator. Participants seeking a single room are responsible for paying a fee. This year's fee has yet to be determined.

May I bring my spouse or guest?

No. Faculty College is designed to be a fully immersive retreat. It is intentionally set at a remote site to minimize distractions. We envision your afternoons and evenings to be spent in dialogue with colleagues from the Universities of Wisconsin. Past participants have said that meaningful exchanges often happen in-between the formal sessions. Book projects have formed in the past.

How should I dress?

Dress is business casual and comfortable. Bring a sweater or shawl for air-conditioned rooms. Afternoons are casual with the possibility of swimming, running, walking, bicycling, writing, reading, and other activities. We suggest packing a light jacket for evenings around the firepit and walks along the lake.

May I request special meals?

Dietary restrictions will be collected during registration. The Catering staff will try its best to provide alternative meals. Should your dietary needs be highly specialized, however, you should be prepared to supplement the catered meals with your dietary needs.

Should I bring spending money?

Yes. Although lodging and meals are covered, you may want to purchase snacks, beverages, or souvenirs.

What recreational activities are available?

Bicycles, kayaks, and pontoon boats are available for rent. (You may also bring your own bicycles and kayaks.) The Osthoff Resort has a spa with services available at a fee. There are two outdoor swimming pools and an exercise room that are free to Faculty College participants. There are also pickleball courts and walkable trails in the surrounding woodlands. The village of Elkhart Lake is a stroll away and offers an ice cream parlor, snack bars, and gift shops, including one that sells Nordic yarn.

May I bring a musical instrument?

Yes! In the past impromptu jam sessions were held around the fire. Guitars, ukuleles, tambourines, a saxophone, and even a plastic bag were part of the music mix.
