1. POLICY PURPOSE:

The purpose of this policy is to provide a set of expectations regarding conduct in the university setting that may be applied to all UW System employees.

2. POLICY BACKGROUND:

Wis. Stat. § 36.115 requires the Board of Regents to develop a personnel system that is separate and distinct from the personnel system under Wis. Stat. Chapter 230. The “classified employee work rules,” which prior to July 1, 2015 were applicable to classified UW System employees covered by Wis. Stat. Chapter 230, no longer apply.

Effective July 1, 2015, this operational policy provides general workplace conduct expectations for all members of the University of Wisconsin System workforce.

3. POLICY DEFINITIONS:

Please see the Definitions Operational Policy for a list of general terms and definitions.

4. POLICY:

As described below, there are general expectations for conduct of UW System employees in the workplace. These general expectations do not preclude a UW System institution, a department, or a work unit from establishing additional rules that are necessary for the effective operation of that institution, department, or work unit.

The workplace expectations listed below or further developed by a UW institution apply to:

- All UW System employees
- Volunteers and other representatives when speaking or acting on behalf of a UW System institution.

These guidelines are not meant to and shall not interfere with academic freedom. The following are general expectations for UW System employee conduct in the workplace:

- Be personally accountable for individual actions;
- Fulfill obligations owed to students, clients, and colleagues;
- Conscientiously meet UW System responsibilities.

D. Contribute to a Healthy and Safe Workplace - The UW System strives to promote health and safety in the workplace. It is the responsibility of all to ensure a safe, secure, and healthy environment for all. General expectations in this regard include but are not limited to:
