The coronavirus resource center on EAB.com has a number of new topic areas where we have peer examples and internal advice to offer. New areas include the following, and can be accessed directly by clicking here:

- Advancement appeals and alumni requests
- Postponed and virtual commencement
- Grading policies (pass/fail)
- Human Resources, including hiring, interviewing, and leave
- Support for admin staff
- Designating essential employees

Interested in learning more about providing virtual advising and student support resources? Check out our three opportunities to dive deeper on this topic:

- Have 3 minutes? Read this blog post - Your classrooms have moved online – but how about your advising office? 3 tips for virtual academic advising
- Have 8 minutes? Watch this short presentation – Providing virtual support to student and staff during crisis
- Have an hour? Join our webinar this Thursday 3/26 at 1pm ET – Best practices for serving students remotely with Pueblo Community College

Check out these other popular blogs from our experts:

- What COVID-19 means for student success
- 5 questions every provost should ask
- 3 principles for safeguarding student success in the transition to remote instruction