

When using the Teams soft phone and you need to dial an extension or a number for an automated attendant option. In the call window click on the Dial pad to open the dial pad. Then click or type the extension number or the number option you require.

